Clean-Up Week Continues Here Through May 8; Support Asked

Residents are being urged to do their share in the annual clean up campaign now underway. Mayor H. W. Madden proclaimed the weeks of April 26 through May 8 as Spring Clean Up in an effort to rid the city of unsightly areas and breeding places for flies and mosquitoes which spread disease.

A survey by each property owner followed by a concentrated effort in cleaning the property or having it done would assure a successful clean up campaign.

Residents are also reminded that they should do their cleaning now and not wait until the trucks begin the pick up on Monday, May 10.

A trash and debris should be placed in containers in the alley. It is also urged that containers not be too heavy for one man to pick up. Also no articles should be placed in the alley if not to be picked up by the men.

Mayor Madden and other members of the City Council are asking everyone to take pride in their community and make Hamlin a place where others would like to live.

Farmers Union Meeting Set In Anson Tuesday

AN EDITORIAL—

School Board Faced with Many New Decisions; Support Urged

From the latest government reports and news releases it seems that the integration of the Hamlin public schools is no longer a matter of whether we will or not, but a matter of how soon.

The best indications now seem to be that total integration will be demanded by 1967 if a school is to continue to receive federal funds. The integration of four grades including the first grade is expected by government officials by this fall.

This writer does not presume to be in any position to tell anyone how this problem should be handled but rather would try to explain to the people of Hamlin the problems faced by their school board.

We can think of nothing worse than for the local citizens to hold the school board members responsible for decisions that they basically do not have any choice in making.

How much integration we will have by this fall no one knows at the present time. But there seems to be little doubt but what there will be some.

There are certain methods whereby full integration can be delayed—and delayed is about all they can accomplish. At the present time the school system is desegregated which means that any pupil can attend the school of his choice.

A large amount of "red tape" is involved in maintaining this status including letters every year to all of the parents in the school district and legal notices in the paper. And the problem with this system is that it is all voluntary and there is no way of knowing whether you would have enough students in a particular grade in the Negro school to keep it operating—if enough in any grade.

How much integration we will have here next fall is a decision that the board must make and it needs to be made with the long range view in mind. This includes the matter of finances as well as other important factors. Because of government decisions it is too late to make these decisions solely on the basis of what would be best for all concerned.

Other problems along this same line facing the board is the matter of transportation and teachers.

The board has already integrated the buses for this fall.

As of now there have only been hints about having to have so many Negro teachers in the school system but there seems little doubt but what a ruling on this will be coming before very long.

There are probably some who would take the attitude that the federal money is not worth the control involved but even if we could afford to do without the federal money it is doubtful that you would get around this matter very long.

We would urge that every citizen accept whatever decision that the school board makes in this situation and understand that their personal wishes had very little to do with their decisions.

If you will remember that they are just fellow citizens who have accepted YOUR responsibilities of administering the school system it will help.

Most County Cotton Farmers Joining Late Planting Program

Cotton Farmers of Jones County are uniting almost unanimously behind a new program which calls for planting May 24 or later. Many advantages are being cited for this uniform plan.

Meetings so far have been held at Stamford, Ericksdahl, Funston, Avoca, Tuxedo, Anson and Hamlin.

In all gatherings so far, farmers enthusiastically have agreed to follow the plan. With the exception of those few farmers who have already planted, almost everyone else at the meetings have agreed to withhold planting until May 24 or later.

The plan is being outlined by a team composed of Roland Kelly, Stamford Cotton Oil Mill, and James Hays and Thomas Owen of the Jones County Farmers Home Administration office. Arrangements for the meetings are being handled by community leaders.

Basis for the program is a new set of tables which list weather information gathered for the last 30 years. The tables reveal rainfall by weeks, the percent of chances for rain during that period and also list temperature highs and lows. A graph shows this information spread out over the year.

Advantages of the uniform planting date are listed as control of boll weevil, easier weed control of other crops, growth cycle of the cotton plant will coincide with area weather, thus affording a better grade.

It is being pointed out that the boll weevil starts to come out of hibernation when the mean temperature is 70 degrees, and when it reaches 80 degrees, they all are out. Life span of the weevil is an average of 21 days. During this time eggs must be laid if the weevil is to be perpetuated.

Eggs are laid on cotton squares that are one-third grown or more. If cotton is planted on May 24 the third grown squares would not be developed until about July 16, it is pointed out.

Weevils start coming out on the average about April 18 and are about all out by May 19. This would mean that weevils in cotton seeded May 24 or after would have no place to lay eggs.

"You can make a cotton crop cheaper if you plant later and don't have to fight weevils," Hays told farmers here Monday night.

Joe Youngblood Hired As Coach

The Hamlin School Board announced Tuesday night that they have hired Joe Youngblood as Head Football coach and Athletic Director for the coming year. He replaces D. C. Andrews who resigned recently to take a similar position at Everman.

Youngblood resigned from the Aspermont School System two weeks ago. He was head football coach, girls basketball coach and track coach there this past year. His football team had a 8-2 season, losing to Anson and Coahoma.

Youngblood is a graduate of Abilene High School where he played halfback and received All-State honors. He graduated from the University of Texas with a BBA degree. He has coached at Robstown, Sands, Eula and Aspermont and has six years head coaching experience.

He and his wife and two boys, ages six and eight, will move here at the close of the school term. He plans to attend Abilene Christian College this summer, working on his Master's degree. The Youngbloods are members of the Church of Christ.

The board gave Youngblood a two year contract. Besides his coaching duties he will also teach history.

No decision has been made yet on who will replace Sam Walker as line coach. Walker resigned to take a similar position in the Albany Schools.

Band Concert Well Attended Here Monday

The Sixth Annual Parade of Music was presented to a capacity attendance in the newly air conditioned High School Auditorium last Monday, May 3. All instrumental groups of the Hamlin school system participated in the final concert of the year. The number of persons attending was estimated to be around 750 and was the largest crowd yet to hear the Piper bands in a formal concert.

Tape recordings were made to go with others on hand with the hope of making another record this year. The record pressing is not a fund raising enterprise, and records will only be ordered if enough people express a desire. The 12 inch LP recordings can be played on any machine and will have approximately 25 to 30 minutes of music on each side. These records may be ordered through any band student or by calling the band office. The price is $4.00.

Farmers are all looking forward to planting cotton pretty soon, since the rains came a week ago. Some hear of are beginning Monday, some the next week and then some are waiting for a while. Wheat has revived more than it looked possible before the rain, it still won't make a bumper crop, but at least it can be harvested with a little profit.
Miss Maude Drake did have the surgery on her eye, last Tuesday, the operation lasting five hours. So far she is doing nicely, but it is too soon to know the outcome, but it is hoped that her sight will be restored.
Jack D. Wright started to work in Abilene, Monday morning, for the Texas Highway Department, as a mechanic. They have sold their home in Hamlin and will move to Abilene as soon as they find a house in Abilene.
Several from our community have been attending revival services in the First Baptist Church, the past week, conducted by the Rev. East, a former pastor of the church. It has been reported that they had a wonderful series of meetings.
We can report an unusual fact from our church, we had more people in Wednesday night services than in church Sunday morning. Neither attendance was anything to brag about, but was something that doesn't happen often.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner spent Friday night and Saturday, in Odessa, with Mr. and Buck Joiner and children. Linda Goodwin has been really strutting the past few days, for she was selected as one of the twirlers for the pep squad next year, and it takes quite a bit strutting practice.
Last Thursday afternoon the men of the vicinity, met at the Fairview cemetery, and finished cleaning it up, before Saturday, which was the annual meeting time. The cemetery looks much better than usual, being clean and with lots of new dirt being used.

Nosey Neighbor...

by Barbara Craig
The mumps have come to our house. I am sure the happenings of our household have been no different from those of other homes during the past few weeks since the mumps started making the rounds. One of the children gets the mumps and Daddy goes to the clinic to get the shot.

Ricky, our seven year old, woke up Saturday morning with a full blown case, the day after having his birthday party with eight of his friends.

Mrs. Jerry Larned, his first grade teacher, said Monday that she had five out of her class with the mumps. Tuesday she had nine absent leaving only 13 in the class.

Judy and Jamie Kim, identical twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Kim were not identical for a while. Jamie had the mumps first and then Judy is just getting over them this week. Yours truly wanted to get a picture while the twins were not identical, and being the only member of the family who had had the mumps, I was elected. Picture taking is not one of my talents, but I tried. The results: the pro in the family said that I was not close enough and also at the wrong angle. Hence, no picture for this week's paper.

And then there are the Jerry Williams whose son, Mike, a first grader, has the mumps as of Monday and the couple's three children have all been exposed to the measles.

The Ray Sonnenburg children are having another bout with the measles. Fodie came down with them again Saturday, followed by her little brother, Jeffrey, who was also having them for the second time.

Are the childhood diseases staying around longer this year, or is it just that I seem to be noticing them more?

When the time comes for me to be needed two places at once and one of those places is at home, there is no question about where you will find me. May I say thanks to all those who have been most cooperative during this time.

THE HAMLIN "SEEN"

Grady Allen back in class at junior high brings smiles to the faces of students and teachers too. Arlie Cassle putting fertilizer on his yard and later in the day his wife, Frankie, working in the flower beds. Clean-up week is more than that to them, they are beautifying too. John Johnson having to be carried to the hospital by ambulance with a back ailment Tuesday. Jo Lynn Johnson not being slowed down by a heavier cast on her leg that was broken two weeks ago on a sidewalk surf board. She sang in the youth choir during the First Baptist Revival and of course was right there for the band concert Monday night.

Reminders in store windows all around that Sunday, May 9, is Mother's Day.

Follow The Signs

Imagine yourself in a train depot in a foreign country, and the signs are in a language unfamiliar to you. You know that the signs are there to direct you, and you try to figure them out, but despite your best efforts you are not sure of your interpretation. The natural thing to do then, is to check with an attendant and have him explain things to you.

The Bible is a sign given to us, and directs us in a pathway of living. Interpreting these directions is not always easy, so the natural thing to do, should be to seek someone to help us. Our churches have many trained personnel who are familiar with the language of the Bible. Attend Church this week and follow God's way of life.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

To Give You More Comfort from Your AIR CONDITIONING at a Lower Cost!

Aren't you happy you have air conditioning to keep you cool and comfortable through these long, hot summer days... and nights... while outside temperatures are sizzling up to the 100 degree mark and past?

For your sake Reddy hopes the temperatures will take a tumble. But in case they don't, he's bursting to give you these valuable tips on how to get maximum efficiency at the lowest cost from your air conditioning—whether you have a central system or window units.

Reddy learned long ago there's nothing better than a long-term, satisfied customer. So, he wants to see that you get the most for your air conditioning dollar by saving you wasted expense.

KEEP FILTERS CLEAN... PREVENT WASTED DOLLARS

Take the strain off your air conditioner and your budget. A dirty filter is like a clogged pipe. It restricts air flow, makes your unit work longer to deliver the same amount of cool air. It also makes your unit work longer to deliver the same amount of cool air. It also makes your unit work longer to deliver the same amount of cool air.

AN OCCASIONAL CHECK UP PAYS

Your air conditioning unit is a big piece of equipment. A check up keeps it in fine, peppy, efficient shape. It's like a tune-up for your car. It's like a check-up for your car. It's like a check-up for your car.

THE THERMOSTAT SETTING IS THE KEY TO SAVING MONEY

The just right temperature for comfortable indoor living is 76 to 78 degrees F. Although some might want it a little cooler and others a little warmer. The engineers say it will cost you as much as 10% more to operate your unit for each degree below the ideal 76 to 78 degrees F. How's that for a money saving tip?

AIR CONDITIONING COSTS DROP WITH PROPER INSULATION

A home without proper insulation lets cool air out, hot air in, and vice versa during winter months. Insulation is not only a terrific bargain (saves up to 37% on summer and winter operating costs), it offers bonuses by absorbing noise and preventing dust from drifting in. Makes housework easier, living more pleasant.

SAVINGS TIP: WEATHERSTRIP

Air leaks around doors and windows are comparable to leaving your refrigerator door open—cuts down efficiency and adds to air conditioning operating costs. Save up to 10% instead by placing weatherstripping around doors and windows. It gets hand-in-hand with insulation in making your home a more enjoyable place by keeping out dust and noise.

TIPS TO SHADOWN

Prevent cool air from escaping up the chimney! Remember to keep the damper closed. Reduce the heat entering your home still more by using blinds, shades or shutters to block direct sunlight.

Texas Congressmen Working for Control of Boll Weevil, In State

Texas cotton took the limelight in Washington on two fronts again this past week, as preparations were made to launch an all-out attack on boll weevils in the state, and opposition was voiced to changes in the skip-row planting regulations.

Representatives Omar Burleson of Anson, George Mahon of Lubbock and Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls, met with Agriculture Department officials and members of the rolling Plains Cotton Growers Association to may strategy in the war on boll weevils.

Present in Washington, representing the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers were Terry Julian of Sweetwater and George Moffett of Chillicothe. They are meeting with USDA entomologists and cotton-state congressmen to plan interim moves in a program which is aimed toward complete elimination of the weevil. Hopes are for a program similar to the one which is being used to eradicate the screwworm.

Weevils are hardy insects, difficult to kill, primarily because of their hard shells, entomologists say. It is believed that the most effective kill can be made during hibernation when incubating eggs can be destroyed.

An experimental campaign, designed along those lines, was launched last year, and according to experts, killed up to 90 percent of the boll weevils in areas which were properly treated.

The Rolling Plains group, organized here last fall, is working with the USDA, and soliciting its support for a future request for government assistance in carrying out an anti-boll weevil program in cooperation with farmers.

Cotton growers in this area contributed 50 cents, per bale toward the program during the 1964 season.

Congressman Mahon also raised his voice this week in opposition to proposed changes in skip-row planting regulations which would cut down on the amount of extra acres allowed to those employing skip-row methods. He requested hearings by the house agriculture committee on the subject.

Currently, cotton growers with a 50-acre allotment, for example, can plant two rows and skip two rows, thus using 100 acres in planting a 50-acre allotment. This allows the cotton more room and cuts down on pest damage, Mahon said.

Skip-row planting increases production by as much as one-third, according to USDA estimates, and is particularly beneficial to dry-land farmers.

Under the proposed changes a grower who plants two rows and skips two rows would have his acreage advantage reduced by 30 percent, Mahon said. A 50-acre allotment owner would then have 65 acres in which to plant instead of the current 100 acres.

Growers who plant two or four rows and skip four, would suffer a 15 percent reduction in their advantage, he added.

Mahon said that for the dry-land farmers in his area, as well as cotton growers, elsewhere, the changes are "a move toward disaster."

"I have already registered a very strong protest," he said, "because I am certain the economic impact of this will be sharply felt."

Growers have until May 22 to file their objections or recommendations with the Agriculture Department.

Clean-Up Week Continues Here Through May 8; Support Asked

Residents are being urged to do their share in the annual clean up campaign now underway. Mayor H. W. Madden proclaimed the weeks of April 26 through May 8 as Spring Clean Up in an effort to rid the city of unsightly areas and breeding places for flies and mosquitoes which spread disease.

A survey by each property owner followed by a concentrated effort in cleaning the property or having it done would assure a successful clean up campaign.

Residents are also reminded that they should do their cleaning now and not wait until the trucks begin the pick up on Monday, May 10.

A trash and debris should be placed in containers in the alley. It is also urged that containers not be too heavy for one man to pick up. Also no articles should be placed in the alley if not to be picked up by the men.

Mayor Madden and other members of the City Council are asking everyone to take pride in their community and make Hamlin a place where others would like to live.

AN EDITORIAL—

School Board Faced with Many New Decisions; Support Urged

From the latest government reports and news releases it seems that the integration of the Hamlin public schools is no longer a matter of whether we will or not, but a matter of how soon.

The best indications now seem to be that total integration will be demanded by 1967 if a school is to continue to receive federal funds. The integration of four grades including the first grade is expected by government officials by this fall.

This writer does not presume to be in any position to tell anyone how this problem should be handled but rather would try to explain to the people of Hamlin the problems faced by their school board.

We can think of nothing worse than for the local citizens to hold the school board members responsible for decisions that they basically do not have any choice in making.

How much integration we will have by this fall no one knows at the present time. But there seems to be little doubt but what there will be some.

There are certain methods whereby full integration can be delayed—and delayed is about all they can accomplish. At the present time the school system is desegregated which means that any pupil can attend the school of his choice.

A large amount of "red tape" is involved in maintaining this status including letters every year to all of the parents in the school district and legal notices in the paper. And the problem with this system is that it is all voluntary and there is no way of knowing whether you would have enough students in a particular grade in the Negro school to keep it operating—if enough in any grade.

How much integration we will have here next fall is a decision that the board must make and it needs to be made with the long range view in mind. This includes the matter of finances as well as other important factors. Because of government decisions it is too late to make these decisions solely on the basis of what would be best for all concerned.

Other problems along this same line facing the board is the matter of transportation and teachers.

The board has already integrated the buses for this fall.

As of now there have only been hints about having to have so many Negro teachers in the school system but there seems little doubt but what a ruling on this will be coming before very long.

There are probably some who would take the attitude that the federal money is not worth the control involved but even if we could afford to do without the federal money it is doubtful that you would get around this matter very long.

We would urge that every citizen accept whatever decision that the school board makes in this situation and understand that their personal wishes had very little to do with their decisions.

If you will remember that they are just fellow citizens who have accepted YOUR responsibilities of administering the school system it will help.

Most County Cotton Farmers Joining Late Planting Program

Cotton Farmers of Jones County are uniting almost unanimously behind a new program which calls for planting May 24 or later. Many advantages are being cited for this uniform plan.

Meetings so far have been held at Stamford, Erickson, Funston, Avoca, Tuxedo, Anson and Hamlin.

In all gatherings so far, farmers enthusiastically have agreed to follow the plan. With the exception of those few farmers who have already planted, almost everyone else at the meetings have agreed to withhold planting until May 24 or later.

The plan is being outlined by a team composed of Roland Kelly, Stamford Cotton Oil Mill, and James Hays and Thomas Owen of the Jones County Farmers Home Administration office. Arrangements for the meetings are being handled by community leaders.

Basis for the program is a new set of tables which list weather information gathered for the last 30 years. The tables reveal rainfall by weeks, the percent of chances for rain during that period and also list temperature highs and lows. A graph shows this information spread out over the year.

Advantages of the uniform planting date are listed as control of boll weevil, easier weed control of other crops, growth cycle of the cotton plant will coincide with area weather, thus affording a better grade.

It is being pointed out that the boll weevil starts to come out of hibernation when the mean temperature is 70 degrees, and when it reaches 80 degrees, they all are out. Life span of the weevil is an average of 21 days. During this time eggs must be laid if the weevil is to be perpetuated.

Eggs are laid on cotton squares that are one-third grown or more. If cotton is planted on May 24 the third grown squares would not be developed until about July 16, it is pointed out.

Weevils start coming out on the average about April 18 and are about all out by May 19. This would mean that weevils in cotton seeded May 24 or after would have no place to lay eggs.

"You can make a cotton crop cheaper if you plant later and don't have to fight weevils," Hays told farmers here Monday night.

Joe Youngblood Hired As Coach

The Hamlin School Board announced Tuesday night that they have hired Joe Youngblood as Head Football coach and Athletic Director for the coming year. He replaces D. C. Andrews who resigned recently to take a similar position at Everman.

Youngblood resigned from the Aspermont School System two weeks ago. He was head football coach, girls basketball coach and track coach there this past year. His football team had a 8-2 season, losing to Anson and Coahoma.

Youngblood is a graduate of Abilene High School where he played halfback and received All-State honors. He graduated from the University of Texas with a BBA degree. He has coached at Robstown, Sands, Eula and Aspermont and has six years head coaching experience.

He and his wife and two boys, ages six and eight, will move here at the close of the school term. He plans to attend Abilene Christian College this summer, working on his Master's degree. The Youngbloods are members of the Church of Christ.

The board gave Youngblood a two year contract. Besides

by Mrs. Elmer Joiner
Farmers are all looking forward to planting cotton pretty soon, since the rains came a week ago. Some we hear of are beginning Monday, some the next week and then some are waiting for a while. Wheat has revived more than it looked possible before the rain, it still won't make a bumper crop, but at least it can be harvested with a little profit.
Miss Maude Drake did have the surgery on her eye, last Tuesday, the operation lasting five hours. So far she is doing nicely, but it is too soon to know the outcome, but it is hoped that her sight will be restored.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner spent Friday night and Saturday, in Odessa, with Mr. and Buck Joiner and children. Linda Goodwin has been really strutting the past few days, for she was selected as one of the twirlers for the pep squad next year, and it takes quite a bit strutting practice.
Last Thursday afternoon the men of the vicinity, met at the Fairview cemetery, and finished cleaning it up, before Saturday, which was the annual meeting time. The cemetery looks much better than usual, being clean and with lots of new dirt being used.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kee, Lubbock, spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Joiner, Jeannie and Ronald, from Stamford.
Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jones went to Possum Kingdom Lake, Sunday, where they met her relatives, including her mother, Mrs. John Ash. The occasion was the celebration of Mrs. Ash's birthday and an early Mother's Day get together.
Mr. and Mrs. John Beauchamp were visitors of the Elmer Joiner's Saturday. The daughter, Debra, had gone to Austin, to be gone over night

Nosey Neighbor . . .

by Barbara Craig

The mumps have come to our house. I am sure the happenings of our household have been no different from those of other homes during the past few weeks since the mumps started making the rounds. One of the children gets the mumps and Daddy goes to the clinic to get the shot.

Ricky, our seven year old, woke up Saturday morning with a full blown case, the day after having his birthday party with eight of his friends. Mrs. Jerry Larned, his first grade teacher, said Monday that she had five out of her class with the mumps. Tuesday she had nine absent leaving only 13 in the class.

Judy and Jamie Kim, identical twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Kim were not identical for a while. Jamie had the mumps first and then Judy is just getting over them this week. Yours truly wanted to get a picture while the twins were not identical, and being the only member of the family who had had the mumps, I was elected. Picture taking is not one of my talents, but I tried. The results: the pro in the family said that I was not close enough and also at the wrong angle. Hence, no picture for this week's paper.

And then there are the Jerry Williams whose son, Mike, a first grader, has the mumps as of Monday and the couple's three children have all been exposed to the measles.

The Ray Sonnenburg children are having another bout with the measles. Fodie came down with them again Saturday, followed by her little brother, Jeffrey, who was also having them for the second time.

Are the childhood diseases staying around longer this year, or is it just that I seem to be noticing them more?

When the time comes for me to be needed two places at once and one of those places is at home, there is no question about where you will find me. May I say thanks to all those who have been most cooperative during this time.

THE HAMLIN "SEEN" - - Grady Allen back in class at junior high brings smiles to the faces of students and teachers too. Arlie Cassle putting fertilizer on his yard and later in the day his wife, Frankie, working in the flower beds. Clean-up week is more than that to them, they are beautifying too. John Johnson having to be carried to the hospital by ambulance with a back ailment Tuesday. Jo Lynn Johnson not being slowed down by a heavier cast on her leg that was broken two weeks ago on a sidewalk surf board. She sang in the youth choir during the First Baptist Revival and of course was right there for the band concert Monday night.

Reminders in store windows all around that Sunday, May 9, is Mother's Day.

Follow The Signs

Imagine yourself in a train depot in a foreign country, and the signs are in a language unfamiliar to you. You know that the signs are there to direct you, and you try to figure them out, but despite your best efforts you are not sure of your interpretation. The natural thing to do then, is to check with an attendant and have him explain things to you.

The Bible is a sign given to us, and directs us in a pathway of living. Interpreting these directions is not always easy, so the natural thing to do, should be to seek someone to help us. Our churches have many trained personnel who are familiar with the language of the Bible. Attend Church this week and follow God's way of life.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

REDDY TIPS to Give You More Comfort from Your AIR CONDITIONING at a Lower Cost!

Aren't you happy you have air conditioning to keep you cool and comfortable through these long, hot summer days . . . and nights . . . while outside temperatures are sizzling up to the 100 degree mark and past?

For your sake Reddy hopes the temperatures will take a tumble. But in case they don't, he's bursting to give you these valuable tips on how to get maximum efficiency at the lowest cost from your air conditioning—whether you have a central system or window units.

Reddy learned long ago there's nothing better than a long-term, satisfied customer. So, he wants to see that you get the most for your air conditioning dollar by saving you wasted expense.

West Texas Utilities Company an investor owned company

clip this out and keep as a reminder

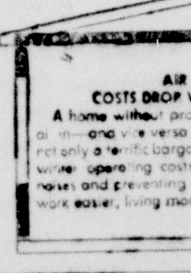

KEEP FILTERS CLEAN . . . PREVENT WASTED DOLLARS
Take the strain off your air conditioner and your budget. A dirty filter restricts air flow, makes your unit work harder to blow your home cool, costs you more in operating costs. Almost all filters are replaceable. Clean them regularly. Washable filters can be cleaned with a vacuum cleaner. Disposable filters can be replaced with a new one. Save money! Clean them regularly.

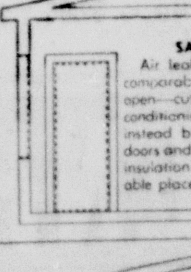

AN OCCASIONAL CHECK UP PAYS
Your air conditioning unit is a big piece of equipment. A check up keeps it in fine, efficient operating condition. This condition up operating costs. Your air conditioner keeps your air conditioned with less strain on it. It's a good idea to have a professional check up. He'll open up free air flow, too, by cleaning blocked air, road and a light from the cooling coil. And, he'll make sure the motor, wiring and thermostat are working properly, and may even point out unit with just preventive for longer life. You'll be glad your prevention called!

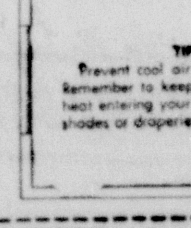

THE THERMOSTAT SETTING IS THE KEY TO SAVING MONEY
The "just right" temperature for comfortable indoor living is 75 to 78 degrees F. Although you might want it a little cooler and others a little warmer. The engineers say it will cost you as much as 10% more to operate your unit for each degree below the ideal. 75 to 78 degrees F. How's that for a money saving tip?

AIR CONDITIONING COSTS DROP WITH PROPER INSULATION
A home without proper insulation lets cool air out, hot air in, and vice versa during winter months. Insulation is not only a terrific bargain (saves up to 37% on summer and winter operating costs), it offers bonuses by absorbing noise and preventing dust from drifting in. Makes house work easier, living more pleasant.

SAVINGS TIP: WEATHERSTRIP
Air leaks around doors and windows are comparable to leaving your refrigerator door open—cuts down efficiency and adds to air conditioning operating costs. Save up to 10% instead by placing weatherstripping around doors and windows. It goes hand-in-hand with insulation in making your home a more comfortable place by keeping out dust and noise.

TIPS TO SHROUD
Prevent cool air from escaping up the chimney! Remember to keep the damper closed. Reduce the heat entering your home still more by using blinds, shades or draperies to block direct sunlight.

Texas Congressmen Working for Control of Boll Weevil, In State

Texas cotton took the lime-light in Washington on two fronts again this past week, as preparations were made to launch an all-out attack on boll weevils in the state, and opposition was voiced to changes in the skip-row planting regulations.

Representatives Omar Burleson of Anson, George Mahon of Lubbock and Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls, met with Agriculture Department officials and members of the rolling Plains Cotton Growers Association to may strategy in the war on boll weevils.

Present in Washington, representing the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers were Terry Julian of Sweetwater and George Moffett of Chillicothe. They are meeting with USDA entomologists and cotton-state congressmen to plan interim moves in a program which is aimed toward complete elimination of the weevil. Hopes are for a program similar to the one which is being used to eradicate the screwworm.

Weevils are hardy insects, difficult to kill, primarily because of their hard shells, entomologists say. It is believed that the most effective kill can be made during hibernation when incubating eggs can be destroyed.

An experimental campaign, designed along those lines, was launched last year, and according to experts, killed up to 90 percent of the boll weevils in areas which were properly treated.

The Rolling Plains group, organized here last fall, is working with the USDA, and soliciting its support for a future request for government assistance in carrying out an anti-boll weevil program in cooperation with farmers.

Cotton growers in this area contributed 50 cents, per bale toward the program during the 1964 season.

Congressman Mahon also raised his voice this week in opposition to proposed changes in skip-row planting regulations which would cut down on the amount of extra acres allowed to those employing skip-row methods. He requested hearings by the house agriculture committee on the subject.

Currently, cotton growers with a 50-acre allotment, for example, can plant two rows and skip two rows, thus using 100 acres in planting a 50-acre allotment. This allows the cotton more room and cuts down on pest damage, Mahon said.

Skip-row planting increases production by as much as one-third, according to USDA estimates, and is particularly beneficial to dry-land farmers.

Under the proposed changes a grower who plants two rows and skips two rows would have his acreage advantage reduced by 30 percent. Mahon said. A 50-acre allotment owner would then have 65 acres in which to plant instead of the current 100 acres.

Growers who plant two or four rows and skip four, would suffer a 15 percent reduction in their advantage, he added.

Mahon said that for the dry-land farmers in his area, as well as cotton growers, elsewhere, the changes are "a move toward disaster."

"I have already registered a very strong protest," he said, "because I am certain the economic impact of this will be sharply felt."

Growers have until May 22 to file their objections or recommendations with the Agriculture Department.
